

Bobby Cameron is a multi-award-winning singer-songwriter/producer originally hailing from Cape Breton Island, NS. He first burst onto the Canadian music scene in 1990 when he was crowned Much Music's National Guitar Wars Winner.

From here Bobby went on to rack up countless industry accolades that included Socan's Songwriter of the Year and Best Rock Artist on Record Two years consecutively during the Alberta Recording Industry Awards.

As Co-Producer Bobby has ridden shotgun alongside Industry heavyweights Randy Staub, Mike Plotnikoff and Miles Wilkinson.

After signing a publishing deal with Carlin America out of New York City, Bobby began making his mark as a sought-after producer/songwriter. This reputation as a fine tunesmith and producer led him to receive a Platinum Sales Award from BMG Canada for his work on Canadian Idol Winner Ryan Malcolm's debut CD entitled Home, and a Gold Sales Award from Universal Canada for his work on Jully Black's Juno Award Winning CD entitled Revival.

Bobby has produced, and co-written on:

- Andrea Nixon's highly acclaimed full-length debut entitled "Diary of A Housewife."
- Jamie Oppenheimer's "Songs from Room 421."
- Scot Free Sessions "Edmonton Skyline."
- Brenda Dirk on multiple radio singles.
- Jessy Mossop's full-length debut.
- Stephanie Bosh's explosive debut EP Stupid Charlie.
- Bernard Quilala - Leading Me On.
- Letters From Pluto - Feel It Now.
- Keshia Erin - Leave Your Sid.
- Laurence Pugh - Little Pieces

He travels extensively to markets like Nashville where he is actively co-writing with some of the industry hit makers like Gordie Sampson, Daryl Burgess, Amy Dally, Eddie Swartz, Patricia Conroy, Lennie Gallant, Mike Plume, Adam Gregory, and John Capek.

He has also co-written with some of Canada's best including:

- Luke McMaster (Rihanna, Nick Lachey, Kyle Riabko)
- Francis and Lepoint (Backstreet Boys)
- Dean McTaggart (Amanda Marshall)
- Stan Meissner (Celine Dion, Starship)
